

FLIC Votes

Job Opening: Embedded Organizer

The Florida Immigrant Coalition Votes (FLIC Votes) is an independent, non-partisan organization that seeks to defend democracy by shaping an active and conscious electorate so that it more closely reflects the diverse populations of Florida.

Job brief:

During this electoral season, FLIC Votes and its partners will drive a powerful civic engagement program in Florida. The principal goal of this campaign is to build power in immigrant communities and turn out pro-immigration Florida residents to vote. We plan to do this through a sustained civic engagement program led by trained leaders, volunteers, youth, and New American voters.

FLIC Votes' Embedded Organizers will begin establishing lasting power in immigrant communities by building strong teams of engaged community members. The Embedded Organizers and their local teams of volunteers will lead powerful Civic Engagement Campaigns and strengthen Civic Engagement organizing programs through the execution of extensive local digital outreach and organizing within communities.

Embedded Organizers will be trained and will train their teams on organizing, voter registration, voter mobilization, volunteer recruitment, and GOTV.

Responsibilities:

1. Recruit and build local team of Community Supporters to volunteer and lead extensive outreach campaigns focused on voter registration, voter mobilization, volunteer recruitment, political education, and local grassroots organizing efforts
2. Manage the data collection of FLIC Votes' civic engagement and outreach work in the field
3. Organize key strategic events for Voter Mobilization, Vote By Mail, and Voter Registration in coordination with partner organizations
4. Coordinate with Partner organization and internal teams to involve their members in FLIC Votes Civic Engagement activities and events
5. Help in the creation and design of Voter Mobilization training programs for FLIC Votes volunteers
6. Support the electoral goals of FLIC Votes by mobilizing voters for endorsed candidates and initiatives
